

Local Payment

To support the local economies of the rural areas in Scotland and England, on some of our tours we have compulsory local payments which includes all accommodation fee's, evening meals, breakfasts and inclusions as stated in the itinerary. These will be paid directly into the local communities so that they can reap the benefits.

In normal circumstances the cost of accommodation, entry fees, ferry fares etc are included in the main price. If there is to be an additional local payment it will be stated alongside the main price, as Kitty
